HENRY BRADSHAW SOCIETY

BOYDELL & BREWER

HENRY BRADSHAW SOCIETY

The Henry Bradshaw Society was founded in 1890 to publish editions and facsimiles of rare liturgical texts. To date the Society has issued 115 volumes in its main series, the great majority being concerned with medieval subjects. Seven titles have been published in the last decade. It is one of the longest-established and most widely respected series in its field, and its ongoing collection provides a resource for the study of the medieval Church whose importance is internationally recognised. The Society also publishes a series of occasional Subsidia volumes, which include extended monographs whose subjects fall within the area of our interests.

All titles are now available, either as original printings, hardback reprints or print on demand paperbacks. This includes the scarce early volumes, which were printed for members only; many of these are unobtainable secondhand, and the reprinting has only been possible thanks to the co-operation of the London Library, who have loaned their copies for the purpose.
